LANS Health & Welfare Benefit Plan
For Employees
Summary Plan Description
Revised October 2011

IMPORTANT
This Summary Plan Description SPD is intended to provide a summary of the principal features of the LANS Health & Welfare Benefit Plan for Employees ("Plan"). Additional information about component Benefit Programs is found in Appendix B. The documents referred to in Appendix B are hereby incorporated by reference into the SPD and the Plan. This SPD will continue to be updated. Please check back on a regular basis for the most recent version.

Nothing in the Plan and/or this SPD shall be construed as giving any participant the right to be retained in service with Los Alamos National Security, LLC ("LANS") or any affiliated company or as a guarantee of any rights or benefits under the Plan. LANS, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to amend or terminate in writing at any time the Plan, SPD and/or any Benefit Program. No benefit described in the Plan will be considered to "vest."

The Plan is governed by a Federal law (known as ERISA), which provides rights and protections to Plan participants and beneficiaries. Copies of the Plan document are on file with the Plan Administrator. You may obtain and/or read the Plan document at any reasonable time. You may also submit a written request to the Plan Administrator requesting a copy of the Plan document. The Plan document may provide additional details regarding the benefits and operation of the Plan.

For questions or to receive a paper copy of this SPD please contact the Los Alamos National Laboratory LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806 or e-mail benefits@lanl.gov. SPDs are also available electronically at LANL Benefits Website for Employees http://int.lanl.gov/worklife/benefits.

Notice for Active Employee Medical Program Only:
Disclosure of Grandfathered Status
LANS believes this Medical Program for active employees and their covered family members is a "grandfathered health plan" under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act ("Affordable Care Act"). As permitted by the Affordable Care Act, a grandfathered health plan can preserve certain basic health coverage that was already in effect when that law was enacted. Being a grandfathered health plan means that your plan may not include certain consumer protections of the Affordable Care Act that apply to other plans, for example, the requirement for the provision of preventive health services without any cost sharing. However, grandfathered health plans must comply with certain other consumer protections in the Affordable Care Act, for example, the elimination of lifetime dollar limits on essential benefits.

Questions regarding which protections apply and which protections do not apply to a grandfathered health plan and what might cause a plan to change from grandfathered health plan status can be directed to LANS or to the Plan Administrator at [contact information]. You may also contact the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor at 1-866-444-3272 or www.dol.gov/ebsa/healthreform. This web site has a table summarizing which protections do and do not apply to grandfathered health plans.

1. Introduction

General Information

This SPD describes the health and welfare Benefit Programs sponsored by LANS and made available to Eligible Employees of LANS through the LANS Welfare Benefit Plan for Employees (“Plan”). For purposes of this SPD, Eligible Employee means an individual who meets the Eligibility Requirements in Section 2, below. Please share this SPD with your family members.

LANS maintains the Plan to provide benefits for the exclusive use of its Eligible Employees and their eligible dependents and beneficiaries. When the term “family member” or “dependent” is used in this SPD, it generally refers to spouses (as defined under federal law), same-sex domestic partners, and children who are related to an Eligible Employee. Please read Section 2, “Eligibility Requirements” very carefully, because each Benefit Program may define the term "dependent" in a slightly different way.

The Benefit Program Materials referenced in Appendix B, together with any updates (including any Summary of Material Modifications (“SMMs”)) and open enrollment materials, are hereby incorporated by reference into this SPD and the Plan.

This document, including all documents incorporated by reference, is intended to meet the SPD requirements of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”).

Plan Details

For detailed information, please refer to:
- Appendix A for Premium Contribution Arrangement information;
- Appendix B for a list of Benefit Program materials;
- Appendix C and Section 8 for claim and appeals administration information;
- Appendix D for funding and contract administration information; and
- Appendix E for Plan administration information.

LANS Benefits

LANS offers the Benefit Programs listed from time to time in Appendix B. Certain Benefit Programs may not be available to all LANS employees and dependents. Some of the Benefit Programs that may be offered from time to time are:
- Medical (including prescription drug coverage)
- Dental
- Vision
- Basic Life
- Supplemental Life
- Dependent Life
- Accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D)
- Short-Term Disability (STD)
- Supplemental Disability
- LANS Defined Benefit Eligible Disability Program
- Business Travel Accident (BTA)
- LANS Special Accident Benefit Program
- Legal
- Dependent Care Reimbursement Account (DCRA)
- Health Care Reimbursement Account (HCRA)
- Severance
- LANS Defined Benefit Eligible Survivor Income Program
The Dependent Care Reimbursement Account ("DCRA") is not subject to ERISA and is not part of the Plan. However, a brief description of the program is included in this document for convenience. Also see the DCRA Benefit Program Summary referenced in Appendix B, for more information.

Keep Your Records Updated

Make sure that LANS always has your current home address and telephone number. Go to LANL Worker Self Service online in Oracle to update your personal information, such as your home address and home telephone number. You may also send your updated information to: Los Alamos National Security, LANL Benefits Office, P.O. Box 1663, MS P280, Los Alamos, NM 87545.

2. Eligibility Requirements

This section describes the general eligibility rules and coverage terms under the Plan. These eligibility rules and coverage terms are subject to change. Please read this section carefully to learn about:

- employee eligibility for health and welfare Benefit Programs
- family member eligibility for health and welfare Benefit Programs

Please note that Section 2 does not describe the eligibility rules for: LANS Defined Benefit Eligible Disability Program, LANS Defined Benefit Eligible Survivor Income Program, LANS Business Travel Accident Benefit Program or LANS Special Accident Benefit Program which are found in the Benefit Program Materials for the respective benefits in Appendix B.

Employee Eligibility

An employee is eligible to participate in the Plan as set forth below.

Initial Requirements Full Benefits — Benefits Eligibility Level Indicator (BELI) 1

You are eligible to enroll in Full Benefits if you are appointed to work in one of the following appointment categories defined in LANS Policy P764 as follows:

- Full-time; or
- Part-time (50% time or a minimum of 20 hours per week for a 12 month period)

No Benefits—Benefits Eligibility Level Indicator (BELI) 5

- You are not eligible for benefits if you are appointed to work in a Casual appointment category defined in LANS Policy P764, or hold one of the following appointment types:
  - high school co-op
  - laboratory associate
  - bargaining unit employee

Ineligible Persons

Excluded Workers, Independent contractors, leased employees, and employees subject to collective bargaining, except as otherwise provided in applicable collective bargaining agreements, are not eligible to participate in the Plan. Any person who is not treated as a common law employee by LANS for income tax withholding purposes, regardless of any subsequent determination of such individual's legal employment status, will not be eligible to participate in the Plan.

Continuing Requirements

LANS bases your ongoing eligibility for benefits on the number of regular hours you are paid by LANS to work each week. (Paid time excludes bonuses and overtime.) To remain eligible for your benefit level, you must maintain an average regular paid time of at least 20 hours per week in a rolling 12-month period. If your average regular paid time drops below 20 hours a week, you become ineligible for all benefits.

Coverage for Family Members

Your family member(s) are eligible only for the Benefit Program(s) in which you are enrolled and which offer family member benefits. For medical benefits family members must be covered under the same Benefit Program option you have elected.

Eligible Family Members

Family members eligible for coverage under the Benefit Programs you have elected may include one eligible adult and/or any eligible children.

1. See Benefit Program materials in Appendix B for eligibility for these benefits.
2. A UC Transitioning Employee means an employee of LANS who joined LANS on June 1, 2006, and was employed by the University of California (UC) on May 31, 2006, and did not retire from UC.
When the term “family member” or “dependent” is used in this SPD, it generally refers to spouses (as defined under federal law), same-sex domestic partners, and children who are related to an Eligible Employee. Please read this information and the applicable Benefit Program materials very carefully, because each Benefit Program may define the term “dependent” in a slightly different way.

Throughout this SPD, the term “spouse” or “legal spouse” means spouse as defined by applicable federal law, unless otherwise provided under the terms of a fully-insured Benefit Program.

Eligible Adults
The following are eligible adults and family members under the Plan unless otherwise provided under the terms of a fully-insured Benefit Program:

- your legal spouse as defined under applicable federal law; or
- your same-sex domestic partner who meets the requirements in the LANS Declaration of Domestic Partnership; or
- your adult dependent relative (“ADR”), who was eligible for UC health & welfare benefits as of December 31, 2003, and who, as of June 1, 2006, is on a list of grandfathered adult dependent relatives provided to LANS by UC. Coverage under LANS Benefit Programs for a grandfathered ADR must be uninterrupted, or grandfathered eligibility status is lost.

In addition to yourself, you may have only one eligible adult family member enrolled in your LANS-sponsored Benefit Programs. For example, if you cover an ADR on your medical and dental Benefit Programs, you may not enroll your spouse in any LANS-sponsored Benefit Program. Your disabled child aged 26 or older is still considered to be your eligible child and not an adult.

Eligible Children
The eligibility rules for dependent children vary for each Benefit Program (i.e. medical, dental, vision) as set forth in the chart below.

You may enroll your same-sex domestic partner’s child even if you do not enroll your same-sex domestic partner; however, your same-sex domestic partner must meet the requirements in the LANS Declaration of Domestic Partnership.

• LANS group medical benefit program before age 23 with continuous coverage and the incapacity must have begun before age 23. (Exception: A new hire at LANS on or after June 1, 2006, who is not a UC Transitioning Employee may enroll an overage disabled child without any prior continuous group medical coverage)
• once eligible, continuous coverage under a LANS group benefit program must be maintained for the overage dependent; if coverage is dropped, coverage is no longer available
• must be approved before child reaches age of exclusion specified by each coverage or by the carrier during the Period of Initial Eligibility (PIE) for newly eligible employees

Ineligible Family Members
Certain family members are not eligible to participate in LANS-sponsored Benefit Programs, unless they qualify as your ADR or eligible child. Ineligible family members include, but are not limited to:

- opposite-sex domestic partners
- siblings,
- in-laws,
- cousins,
- former spouses,
- former same sex domestic partners,
- grandchildren,
- your children’s spouses/domestic partners, and
- grandchildren’s spouses/domestic partners.

3 A UC Transitioning Employee means an employee of LANS who joined LANS on June 1, 2006, and was employed by the University of California (UC) on May 31, 2006, and did not retire from UC.
Qualified Medical Child Support Orders (QMCSOs)

A QMCSO is any judgment, decree or order, including a court-approved settlement agreement, that:

- is issued by
  - a domestic relations court or other court of competent jurisdiction, or
  - through an administrative process established under state law which has the force and effect of law in that state,
- assigns to a child the right to receive health benefits for which the child of a participant is eligible under the Plan, and
- the Plan Administrator determines to be a QMCSO under the terms of ERISA and applicable state law

You can get a copy of the Plan’s QMCSO procedures upon request to the Plan Administrator listed in Appendix E at no cost to you.

In general, only children who meet the eligibility requirements as dependents – for example, by meeting the age requirements – can be covered under a QMCSO. However, a QMCSO can also apply to children who:

- were born out of wedlock,
- are not claimed as dependents on your federal income tax return, or
- do not live with you

No Duplicate Coverage

Plan rules do not allow duplicate coverage. This means you may not be covered in any LANS-sponsored Benefit Program as an employee and as an eligible family member of another LANS employee or retiree at the same time. If you are covered as a family member and then become eligible for LANS coverage yourself, you have two options. You may either waive the coverage and remain covered as another employee’s dependent or make sure the LANS employee or retiree who has been covering you de-enrolls you from his or her LANS-sponsored Benefit Program before you enroll yourself.

Family members of LANS employees may not be covered by more than one LANS employee’s program coverage. For example, if a husband and wife both work for LANS, their children may not be covered by both spouses.

If duplicate enrollment occurs, the employees must make a definitive choice of how they will eliminate the duplication. The Plan reserves the right to receive reimbursement for any duplicate premium payments and to collect for any Plan benefits provided due to the duplicate enrollment. For additional information, refer to the applicable Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B.

Documentation

To verify eligibility for your family members, LANS, and the insurance carriers and third party administrators require documentation needed to verify the relationship, including but not limited to birth certificates, adoption records, marriage certificates, verification of domestic partnership, and tax documentation. (See Section 11, General Plan Provisions, “Administration of Plan.”)

In addition, LANS may request information from you regarding Medicare eligibility and enrollment, family member eligibility, address information, and more. You are required to promptly provide the requested information for your family members to remain eligible for coverage.
Loss of Family Member Eligibility

Whenever a family member loses eligibility to participate in LANS-sponsored Benefit Programs, it is your responsibility to de-enroll that family member from the Benefit Program within 31 calendar days from the date of initial ineligibility by going online or by submitting a form available from LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806. See “Ineligible Persons” in this section for more details. (See Section 9; “Continuation of Health Care Coverage”, for information about COBRA coverage for a family member who loses eligibility).

Recission of Coverage

If you enroll yourself or another person in a Benefit Program and you or that other person is ineligible to participate in the Benefit Program or you fail to properly notify LANS that you or your dependent is no longer eligible to participate in a Benefit Program, LANS will de-enroll the ineligible participant once LANS is aware of the ineligibility.

De-enrollment will be retroactive to the initial date of participation if the person was never eligible to participate or to the first day of the pay-period following the pay-period in which the person was no longer eligible to participate if:

- the covered person is a former spouse and you failed to notify LANS of the divorce, or
- you (or the covered individual) has engaged in fraud or made an intentional misrepresentation of material facts to gain or continue participation in the Benefit Program.

The following will be considered fraud or an intentional misrepresentation of facts:

- Enrolling a person to whom you are not married at the time you enrolled, as your spouse.
- Enrolling a person who does not meet the requirements to be your same sex domestic partner at the time you enrolled, as your same sex domestic partner.
- Enrolling a person as your child or other dependent who is not your child or dependent at the time you enrolled.
- Failing to de-enroll your child from the Benefit Program within 31 days of the date when he or she no longer meet the eligibility requirements
- Providing LANS with falsified or counterfeit documents to show eligibility
- Failure to provide documentation to determine eligibility in a timely manner when requested by LANS

In situations other than those described above, LANS will provide you with 30 days advance written notice that you or another person enrolled as your dependent will be de-enrolled and LANS will de-enroll you or such other person as of the end of the 30 days period or as soon as administratively practicable thereafter.

If LANS de-enrolls you or another person enrolled as your dependent on a retroactive basis, you will not receive reimbursement for any premiums paid for coverage, you will be responsible for employer contributions and benefits paid by the Plan for the ineligible person, and you will be subject to disciplinary action including, but not limited to, LANS de-enrolling you from coverage under the Plan and prohibiting you from enrolling for a period not to exceed one year.

3. How to Enroll

Active Employees

If you’re a new employee, you’ll receive a packet of information, including a benefits election form, when you begin work at LANS. If you do not receive the packet and/or the form, please contact LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806. You’ll use the benefits election form to elect or waive your health coverage and other benefits. By electing to participate in one or more Benefit Programs offered under the Plan, you authorize LANS to deduct your share of the cost of your coverage from your pay. In the future, you will have the option of enrolling on-line.

No Default Enrollment
If you are eligible for medical, dental or vision benefits and you fail to enroll, you will not be defaulted into the medical, dental or vision benefits plans and you must wait until the next Open Enrollment or a Period of Initial Eligibility (“PIE”) to enroll.

Period of Initial Eligibility (PIE)
A PIE is a time during which you and/or, as applicable, your eligible family members may enroll in certain LANS-sponsored Benefit Programs. Evidence of insurability (proof of good health) may be required.

A PIE starts on the “event date” and ends 31 calendar days later or on the next day the Laboratory is open for regular business (if the 31st day falls on a weekend, emergency closure, holiday, seasonal closure or other similar non-business day).

Other Periods to Enroll

90-Day Waiting Period for Medical Coverage
If you miss a PIE, you may enroll yourself or eligible family members in medical coverage after a 90 consecutive calendar day waiting period that begins the day the completed enrollment form is received by Benefits. Coverage is effective after the 90 days have elapsed. If you miss a PIE, your premiums may need to be paid on an after-tax basis.

Annual Open Enrollment
If you are an active employee, you may enroll for coverage, change your coverage level, or waive coverage during the annual open enrollment period, which is usually held in November. However, certain benefits may not open to new enrollees every year, including, the Disability and Life coverage.

In addition, certain benefits require evidence of insurability (proof of good health) if you do not enroll when initially eligible and wish to enroll later. Open enrollment elections are effective January 1 of the following year. If you do not change your elections during open enrollment, your coverage levels will continue from the previous year with the exception of contributions to an HCRA and/or DCRA. If you wish to contribute to an HCRA and/or DCRA, you must make an affirmative election to do so each year during open enrollment.

COBRA qualified beneficiaries are eligible to participate in the open enrollment process for their COBRA-covered health benefits if their maximum COBRA period has not expired. (See Section 9, “Continuation of Health Care Coverage”).

When Coverage Begins
The date coverage begins will depend on when you are enrolled for coverage under a Benefit Program and the Benefit Program in which you are enrolled. In general, coverage under the Plan begins the first day of employment or first day of a Plan Year. For more information, review the applicable Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B.

If you are not initially eligible and later become eligible, coverage will be effective on the date of eligibility as long as you provide notice to the LANL Benefits Office within 31 days of the event.
When Coverage Ends

Active Employees
Active employee coverage generally ends at the earlier of:
- the last day of the pay period following the date you terminate employment, or experience any other applicable qualified change in employment status which causes you to lose coverage, or
- the last day of the pay period for which payment was received; or
- the last day of the pay period following lay-off; or
- the last day of the month following the month in which you retire from LANS; or
- the last day of the pay period in which you become ineligible for coverage; or
- the date of ineligibility; or
- the date of death; or
- the date the Plan or Benefit Program terminates; and/or
- as further described in the Benefit Program material.

Dependents of Employees
Coverage for family members generally ends at the earlier of:
- the last day of the pay period for which payment was received; or
- the last day of the pay period in which the employee terminates employment; or experiences any other applicable qualified change in status; or
- the date of death of the dependent; or
- the last day of the full month after the date of death of the employee; or
- the date the Plan or Benefit Program terminates; or
- as further described in the Benefit Program material.

Rescission of Coverage
LANS will provide written notice 30 calendar days prior to the date of coverage rescission except in the case of fraud or intentional misrepresentation of a material fact or failure to pay premiums in which cases coverage will be terminated immediately.

HIPAA Certificate of Creditable Coverage
When your or your family member’s medical coverage ends, you or your family member will automatically receive a certificate of creditable coverage that:
- confirms medical coverage under the Plan; and
- states the length of coverage.

If you or your family member become eligible for other medical coverage that excludes or delays coverage for certain pre-existing conditions, this certificate provides credit – against the new program’s pre-existing condition limit – for the time of coverage under the Plan. You or your family member may request an additional certificate from your medical Benefit Program listed in Appendix C at any time while covered and within 24 months after coverage ends.

Dependent Care Reimbursement Account (DCRA)
DCRA coverage ends on the last day of the pay period following the date you terminate employment or the effective date of a leave of absence.

Health Care Reimbursement Account (HCRA)
HCRA coverage ends on the last day of the pay period following the date you terminate employment or the effective date of a leave of absence other than an FMLA or a USERRA leave.
(See Section 6, “Other Benefits” for the HCRA Benefit Program Summary for details on FMLA or USERRA leave.) Following termination, HCRA coverage may be extended under COBRA or other continuation coverage. (See Section 9, “Continuation of Healthcare Coverage” and Section 6, “Other Benefits” under the HCRA Benefit Program Summary for additional information on COBRA or other continuation coverage.

4. Paying for Coverage

You and LANS share the cost of coverage under certain Benefit Programs, as described in Appendix A. Your portion of the cost varies according to your benefits and coverage levels (i.e., single, family, etc.). For more information, refer to Appendix A.

The cost of coverage does not include your costs for any applicable deductibles, co-payments, co-insurance, out-of-network charges, or non-covered items.

Contributions for Health Benefits

Pre-Tax Employee Contributions

Active employees generally pay their contributions for health benefits (includes medical, dental, and vision) on a "pre-tax" basis; that is, before federal income and employment taxes are deducted from their pay. In addition, contributions to the Health Care Reimbursement Account (HCRA) and the Dependent Care Reimbursement Account (DCRA) are on a pre-tax basis.

Paying for benefits on a pre-tax basis reduces your gross salary, which lowers your taxable income and, therefore, the amount of federal tax you must pay. In most states you also pay no state taxes on your contributions.

Paying for benefits on a pre-tax basis means that Social Security taxes will not be deducted for the pre-tax contribution amount. As a result, the earnings used to calculate your Social Security benefits at retirement will not include these payments. This could result in a small reduction in the Social Security benefit you receive at retirement.

LANS Contributions

LANS contributions for health benefits are generally not taxable income to employees.

Imputed income

The value of coverage provided by LANS for individuals who are not considered dependents under the Internal Revenue Code must be considered as taxable income to the employee who enrolled the person. These "non-qualified dependents" may include:

- same-sex domestic partners
- children of same-sex domestic partners
- adult dependent relatives

Please contact the LANL Benefits Office if you have questions regarding dependent status.

Salary Determination for Medical Premiums

Employer contributions towards medical plan premiums are determined based on predefined salary ranges by LANS. For this purpose base salary for the employee will be the amount on record as of the later of January 1st of the current year or the date of hire.

Employee Contributions for Medical, HCRA and DCRA

Premiums or contributions are paid by pre-tax payroll deduction or salary reduction.
Employee Contributions for Other Benefits
Employee contributions for Legal, Supplemental Life, Supplemental Disability, Dependent Life, and AD&D insurance are paid on an after-tax basis.

Unpaid Leave of Absence
Employees on unpaid leave of absence will pay for coverage directly to LANS.

Health Care Benefits during Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) Leave
LANS contributions for your health care benefits will continue during an approved leave without pay under the provisions of the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) for up to 12 workweeks for the employee and any enrolled family members, provided the employee was enrolled in the respective Benefit Program at the beginning of the leave.

If you are receiving pay during an FMLA leave, your contributions will continue to be deducted from your pay. If you are not receiving pay during an FMLA leave, you pay LANS directly on the same schedule that applied before your leave began.

You may revoke your health coverage elections and not have coverage during FMLA leave. In this case, when you return to work after the FMLA leave, you can be reinstated in the same benefits you had before your FMLA leave or you may reinstate or change benefits if there is an intervening qualified Life Event. (See Section 7, “Making Changes to Your Elections” for more information on when you may change benefits).

For additional information on FMLA leaves, such as how to request a leave and other rights and obligations, as well as their impact on Plan benefits, please contact LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806.

Short Term Disability
Employees receiving short term disability benefits will continue to receive the LANS contribution towards their medical plan coverage for up to 6 months provided their LANS employment is not terminated. These employees must arrange direct payment through the LANS Cashier's Office. Payment must be made in advance of each premium month.

For more information on leaves of absence, refer to LAN'S Leave of Absence policy.

5. Health Program Information
The Plan includes health (e.g., medical, dental, vision, and HCRA) programs.

Benefit Program Material
The Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B describes the nature of covered services including, but not limited to:

- coverage of drugs, emergency care, preventive care, medical tests and procedures, hospitalization and durable medical equipment;
- eligibility to receive services;
- exclusions, limitations, and terms for obtaining coverage (such as rules regarding preauthorization and utilization review);
- cost sharing (including deductibles and co-payment amounts);
- other caps or limits;
- circumstances under which services may be denied, reduced, or forfeited;
- procedures, including pre-authorization and utilization review, to be followed in obtaining services; and
- procedures available for the review of denied claims
You may also obtain a copy of the Benefit Program material for the health program in which you are enrolled by contacting the program directly at the address or phone number listed in Appendix C. Or, you may contact LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806.

Provider Networks

If you are enrolled in a health program that offers benefits through provider networks, a list of providers is available to you once coverage takes effect. Contact the health program at the address, phone number, or Web site listed in Appendix C, or you may contact LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806.

Refer to the Benefit Program material in Appendix B for your health program for a description of:
- how to use network providers,
- the composition of the network,
- the circumstances under which coverage will be provided for out-of-network services, and
- any conditions or limits on the selection of primary care providers or specialty medical providers that may apply

Generally, if you participate in a health program that provides benefits through a network of providers, benefits will be paid only if your provider participates in or is associated with a network that your health program uses. Some health programs may require a referral from a primary care physician before a patient can be treated by a specialty provider.

Maternity Hospital Stays (Newborns’ and Mothers’ Health Protection Act)

Federal law protects the benefit rights of mothers and newborns related to hospital stays in connection with childbirth. In general, group health programs and health insurance issuers may not:
- restrict benefits for the length of hospital stay for the mother or newborn child to less than 48 hours following a vaginal delivery, or less than 96 hours following a cesarean section. However, federal law generally does allow the mother’s or newborn’s attending provider, after consulting with the mother, to discharge the mother or her newborn earlier than 48 hours (or 96 hours as applicable).
- require that a provider obtains authorization from the plan or the insurance issuer for prescribing a length of stay longer than 48 hours (and 96 hours as applicable).

For details on any state maternity laws that may apply to your medical program, please refer to the Benefit Program material for the medical program in which you are enrolled.

Benefits for Mastectomy-Related Services (Women’s Health and Cancer Rights Act)

The medical programs sponsored by LANS will not restrict benefits if you or your dependent:
- receives benefits for a mastectomy, and
- elects breast reconstruction in connection with the mastectomy

Benefits will not be restricted provided that the breast reconstruction is performed in a manner determined in consultation with you or your dependent’s physician and may include:
- all stages of reconstruction of the breast on which the mastectomy was performed;
- surgery and reconstruction of the other breast to produce a symmetrical appearance; and
- prostheses and treatment of physical complications of all stages of mastectomy, including lymph edemas
Benefits for breast reconstruction will be subject to annual deductibles and coinsurance amounts consistent with benefits for other covered services under the program. For details on any state laws that may apply to your medical program, please refer to the Benefit Program material for the medical program in which you are enrolled.

No Pre-existing Conditions Limitations
When you enroll in any LANS-sponsored medical, dental, or vision program, you will not be excluded from enrollment based on your health, nor will your premium or level of benefits be based on any pre-existing health conditions. The same applies to your dependents.

6. Other Benefits

Benefit Program Material
You may also obtain a copy of the Benefit Program material for the program in which you are voluntarily enrolled by contacting the program directly at the address or phone number listed in Appendix C. Or, you may contact LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806.

The Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B describes the nature of covered services including, but not limited to:
- eligibility to receive services;
- exclusions, limitations, and terms for obtaining coverage;
- cost sharing;
- other caps or limits;
- circumstances under which services may be denied, reduced, or forfeited;
- procedures to be followed in obtaining services; and
- procedures available for the review of denied claims

Life, Disability, and Accident Benefits
Employees of LANS are eligible for life, dependent life, accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D), short-term disability (STD), supplemental disability, business travel accident and special accident benefits if they meet any applicable requirements described in Section 2, “Eligibility Requirements” and in the applicable Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B.

Eligible employees may elect to cover their eligible dependents if dependent coverage is available under the Benefit Program. In addition to eligibility, the Benefit Program material may describe the coverage, terms, limitations, and costs to you (if applicable).

Pre-existing conditions may limit the amount of benefits you can receive under the supplemental disability program.

Enrolling in or increasing coverage for supplemental and dependent life insurance and supplemental disability insurance outside of a PIE requires evidence of insurability (proof of good health). The insurance company may or may not accept your enrollment based on the statement of health.

Supplemental Life – Disability Waiver of Premium
If you are covered under Supplemental Life, become totally disabled (as defined in the applicable Benefit Program material) before age 65, and your disability continues for at least six consecutive months, you may qualify for continuance of life insurance protection without paying the premiums. You must provide written proof of your disability to the insurance carrier no later than one year after disability starts. Disability waiver of premium terminates at age 70. For information, contact LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806.
Legal Program

The LANS employee-paid group Legal program provides basic legal services for eligible employees and their eligible family members. Enrollment in the legal program is limited to newly eligible employees during their PIE or during open enrollment periods in which the legal program is offered. For more information, review the Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B.

An employee who terminates employment with LANS at age 50 or over, has at least 5 years of service, and was enrolled in the legal program as an active employee, will have the option to continue coverage by enrolling in the ARAG Ultimate Advisor legal program. Former employees must contact ARAG within 31 days of termination to request an enrollment form, coverage information, rates and details on how to enroll. Former employees who are not enrolled in the legal program on the date of termination are not eligible to enroll. See Appendix D for ARAG contact information.

Reimbursement Accounts

Health Care Reimbursement Account (HCRA)

The Health Care Reimbursement Account (HCRA) allows you to set aside money on a pre-tax basis to help pay for certain medical expenses not covered by insurance or group health plan. This means you pay no taxes on the amount you contribute to your HCRA account. You draw on this account to be reimbursed for eligible health care expenses.

Eligible expenses generally are those for you or your family members who are your dependants for federal tax purposes for which you could take a medical expense deduction on your federal income tax return (disregarding the deduction limitation amount), such as health program deductibles, co-payments, and out-of-pocket expenses for medical services not covered at 100%. However, insurance premiums and expenses for long term care are not reimbursable expenses under the HCRA.

For additional information on the benefits and terms for the HCRA, including the rules related to FMLA leave, please refer to the Health Care Reimbursement Account program material listed in Appendix B.

Dependent Care Reimbursement Account (DCRA)

The Dependent Care Reimbursement Account (DCRA) allows you to set aside money on a pre-tax basis to help pay for certain dependent care expenses necessary to allow you to work or look for work.

This means you pay no taxes on the amount you contribute to your DCRA account. You may draw on this account to be reimbursed for eligible dependent care expenses you incur for your eligible dependents, such as your child under age 13, or a spouse or other dependent of any age that is physically or mentally unable to care for himself or herself and satisfies certain other requirements.

For additional information on the benefits and terms under DCRA, please refer to the Dependent Care Reimbursement Account program material listed in Appendix B.
Important Note
In addition to DCRA, another method of tax savings for dependent care expenses is the federal child and dependent care tax credit. Depending on your personal situation, you may be able to participate in DCRA for certain expenses, and still take a federal tax credit for certain remaining eligible expenses. However, you may not take both the federal tax credit and receive reimbursement from DCRA for the same expenses. You may want to consult IRS Publication 503 and/or a tax advisor to help you decide whether the federal tax credit and/or DCRA will result in better tax savings for you.

Making Changes to Your Reimbursement Account Plan Elections
Once you make your elections for participation in either Reimbursement Account, you may generally not change your elections until the next annual open enrollment period. However, certain changes are permitted if you meet the criteria described in Section 7, “Making Changes to Your Elections.”

LANS Defined Benefit Eligible Disability Program
For information about the LANS Defined Benefit Disability Program, review the Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B.

LANS Defined Benefit Eligible Survivor Income Program
For information about the LANS Defined Benefit Eligible Survivor Income Program, review the Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B.

Severance Program
For information about the LANS Severance Program review the Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B.

7. Making Changes to Your Elections
In general, the Benefit Programs and coverage levels you choose when newly eligible and at open enrollment remain in effect through the end of the plan year. However, you may be able to change your elections between annual open enrollment periods if certain events occur, as further explained below.

You must contact the Benefits Office within 31 days of the event to request this change. Otherwise, your next opportunity to enroll new dependents or make other Benefit Program changes is generally the next annual open enrollment period or the date you have another qualified event which would permit you to make a mid-year election change, whichever occurs first.

Life Events
The following is a list of Life Events that allow you to make a change to your elections mid-year, as long as the consistency requirements are met. (See “Consistency Requirements,” described below):

- Legal marital status. An event that changes your legal marital status, including marriage, divorce, death of a spouse, legal separation, or annulment.
- Same-sex domestic partnership status. An event that changes the status of your domestic partnership, including establishment or termination of a domestic partnership or death of your same-sex domestic partner.
• Number of dependents. An event that changes your number of dependents, including birth, death, adoption, and placement for adoption.

• Employment status. An event that changes your, your spouse’s or another dependent’s employment status that results in gaining or losing eligibility for coverage. Examples include:
  o beginning or terminating employment
  o reduction in work hours
  o a change in your appointment status that results in a change of Benefits Eligibility Level Indicator (BELI). (See Section 2, “Eligibility Requirements”)

• Dependent status. An event that causes your dependent to become eligible or ineligible for coverage because of age, student status, or similar circumstances.

Consistency Requirements

The change you make to your benefit elections must be “due to and consistent with” your Life Event. To satisfy the federally required “consistency rule,” your Life Event and corresponding change in coverage must meet both of the following requirements.

- Effect on eligibility. Except for the DCRA, the Life Event must affect eligibility for coverage under the Plan or under a plan sponsored by the employer of your spouse or other dependent. For this purpose, eligibility for coverage is affected if you become eligible (or ineligible) for coverage or if the Life Event results in an increase or decrease in the number of your dependents who may benefit from coverage under the Plan. For the DCRA, the Life Event must affect the amount of dependent care expenses eligible for reimbursement. (For example, your child reaches age 13, and dependent care expenses are no longer eligible for reimbursement.)

- Corresponding election change. The election change must correspond with the Life Event. For example, if your dependent loses eligibility for coverage under the terms of a health program due to age, you may cancel health coverage only for that dependent.

For life insurance and disability insurance coverage, an election to increase or decrease coverage in connection with a Life Event is considered to “correspond” with the event.

You must contact the Benefits Office within 31 days of the event. Otherwise, your next opportunity to make changes will be the next open enrollment period or when you have another event which would permit you to make a mid-year election change, whichever occurs first.

Coverage and Cost Events

In some instances, you can make mid-year changes to your benefits coverage for other reasons, such as mid-year events affecting your cost or coverage, as described below. You are not permitted to make a change to your HCRA due to coverage and cost events.

Coverage Events

If LANS adds, eliminates or significantly reduces benefits offered under a Benefit Program in the middle of the Plan year, or if LANS-sponsored coverage is significantly limited or ends, you and your dependents can elect different coverage in accordance with IRS regulations. Here are some examples:

- If there is an overall reduction under a Benefit Program so as to substantially reduce coverage to participants in general, participants enrolled in that Benefit Program may revoke their election and elect coverage under another option providing similar coverage.

- If LANS adds another Benefit Program mid-year, participants can drop their existing corresponding coverage and enroll in the new program. You and/or your eligible dependents may also enroll in the new Benefit Program even if not previously enrolled for coverage at all.
• If another employer’s plan (for example, your spouse’s employer) allows you, your spouse, or your dependent child to make an election change during that plan’s annual open enrollment period, you may make a corresponding mid-year election change. This rule applies to the DCRA as well as medical, vision, and dental coverage.

• If another employer’s plan (for example, your spouse’s employer) allows you, your spouse or your dependent child to change his or her elections in accordance with IRS regulations, you may make a corresponding mid-year election change to your coverage.

Cost Events
If your cost for “health” program coverage under the Plan increases significantly during the Plan year, you may make a corresponding change to your coverage under that plan.

If there is a significant decrease in the cost of a “health” program during the Plan year, you may enroll in that health plan, even if you declined to enroll in that health plan earlier.

Changes in the cost of your Benefit Program that are not significant will result in an automatic increase or decrease, as applicable, in your share of the total cost. The Plan Administrator will determine whether a change in cost is significant.

Dependent Care Reimbursement Account
If you change your dependent care provider mid-year, you may change your DCRA contributions to correspond with the new provider’s charges. Similarly, if your dependent care provider (other than a provider who is your relative) raises or lowers its rates mid-year, you may increase or decrease your contributions.

If your dependent care provider reduces or increases the number of hours of care it provides, you may make a corresponding change to your DCRA election.

You must contact the Benefits Office within 31 days of an event. Otherwise, your next opportunity to make changes will be the next open enrollment period or when you have another event which would permit you to make a mid-year election change, whichever occurs first.

Special Enrollment Rights – Medical, Dental, or Vision Coverage
If you decline enrollment for medical, dental, or vision coverage for yourself or your dependents (including your spouse) because of other health plan coverage, you may in the future be able to enroll yourself and your dependents in such coverage under the Plan, if you or your dependents lose other coverage or you gain a new dependent as described below.

Loss of other coverage
This rule applies if you meet the following conditions:
• you (or your dependent) was covered under other health coverage when LANS coverage (for example, under another employer’s medical plan) was previously offered to you; and
• you (or your dependent) lose other coverage because:
  • you (or your dependent) exhaust rights to COBRA coverage, or
  • The employer’s contributions to the other coverage stop, or
  • you (or your dependent) is no longer eligible under that plan

If you or your dependent loses other health coverage due to one of these conditions, you may enroll yourself and your eligible dependents in a LANS health plan within 31 days of the loss of coverage.

Acquiring new dependents
When you acquire a newly eligible dependent spouse or child (through marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption), you may enroll yourself, your spouse, and eligible dependent children in a LANS health plan within 31 days of the date you acquire the new dependent.

Coverage will start on the date of birth or placement for adoption as long as the child is enrolled within 31 days of the date of birth or placement for adoption.

Other Rules on Changing Coverage

Medicare or Medicaid Entitlement

You may, but are not required to, change an election for medical coverage mid-year if you, your spouse, or dependent becomes entitled to Medicare or Medicaid coverage. However, you’re limited to reducing your coverage only for the person who becomes entitled to Medicare or Medicaid, or you’re limited to adding coverage only for the person who loses eligibility for Medicare or Medicaid.

Family and Medical Leave Act

You may revoke an election for health coverage mid-year (including the HCRA) when you begin a leave, subject to the provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). If you revoke coverage or if you fail to make payments during your FMLA leave, when you return from the FMLA leave (except with respect to the HCRA) you will be reinstated to the same elections you made prior to taking your FMLA leave. With respect to HCRA please refer to the HCRA/DCRA Benefit Program Summary referenced in Appendix B for more information.

Judgment, Decree, or Order

You may revoke an election for health coverage mid-year and make a new election if a judgment, decree, or order requires health coverage for your child, including a foster child. The order must have resulted from a divorce, legal separation, annulment, or change in legal custody, and must meet the requirements of a qualified medical child support order (QMCSO). (See Section 2, “Eligibility Requirements,” for information about QMCSO).

You may change your health program election to provide coverage for the eligible child if the order requires coverage under your health program. You may also cancel coverage for the child if the order requires your spouse, former spouse, or other individual to provide coverage for the child, but only if coverage for the child is actually provided. Proof of that other coverage may be required.

Special Note Regarding Same-sex domestic partner Coverage

The events qualifying you to make a mid-year election change described in this section also apply to events related to a dependent who is your same-sex domestic partner or your same-sex domestic partner’s tax dependent. Therefore, you may add or drop a same-sex domestic partner from coverage during the year if the partner has a qualifying event. However, IRS rules generally do not permit you to make a mid-year change with respect to your own coverage election for the year for such events unless they involve your tax dependent.

Therefore, you cannot make a change to your election for the Plan year even if your same sex domestic partner is permitted to add or drop coverage during the year unless the same sex domestic partner is also your tax dependent. See Section 4, “Paying for Coverage.” For more information on who qualifies as a federal tax dependent.
More Life Event Information
Detailed information about Life Events and PIEs may be obtained from the LANL Benefits Office.

8. Claims and Appeals Procedures
The claims procedures outlined below are representative of the actual claims procedures followed by the Claims Administrators of Benefit Programs that are subject to ERISA and offered under the Plan. See the applicable Benefit Program in Appendix B for the claims procedure that the Claims Administrator will follow.

Any claim or appeal for a specific benefit shall be made in accordance with the applicable insurance policy or administrative agreement directly to the Claims Administrator for that specific benefit. See Appendix C for Claims Administrators. In the event Appendix C identifies the Plan Administrator as the Claims Administrator, the Claims Procedures set forth in this Section 8 apply.

A claim for benefits (including eligibility to participate) must be filed within twelve (12) months from the date the claim was incurred or as provided in the applicable insurance policy or administrative agreement. No action at law or in equity in any court or agency shall be brought to recover benefits under the Plan prior to the exhaustion of the applicable ERISA Claim and Appeal Procedures nor shall an action be brought at all unless it is brought within twelve (12) months after the date the Claims Administrator renders its final decision upon appeal or as provided in the applicable insurance policy or administrative agreement.

The claims procedures for each specific Benefit Program will be furnished automatically to you without charge. See Appendix B. If you do not receive the claims procedures please contact the LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806 or e-mail benefits@lanl.gov.

Health Benefit Claims and Appeals Procedures

Filing an Initial Claim
You must follow the claims procedures established by the various health Benefit Programs (medical, dental, vision, and Health Care Reimbursement Account). If you are required to file an initial claim for benefits, you must do so within the time specified by the Benefit Program and in accordance with the Benefit Program’s established claim procedures. See the applicable Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B for details on filing claims. See Appendix C for a list of Claim Administrators and their contact information.

Appeal of Adverse Decision
If you disagree with the decision on your claim including for a request or application for participation, you (or your authorized representative) may file a written appeal with the applicable Claims Administrator within 180 days after your receipt of the notice of adverse decision. For a list of Claims Administrators, see Appendix C. If you don’t appeal on time, you may lose your right to file suit in a state or federal court, as you will not have exhausted your internal administrative appeal rights (which is generally a requirement before you can sue in state or federal court).

For appeals of adverse benefits decisions involving Urgent Care Claims, the Claims Administrator will accept either oral or written requests for appeals for an expedited review. All necessary information may be transmitted between the Claims Administrator and you or health program providers by telephone, fax or other available expeditious methods.
Notice of Decision on Appeal

After your appeal is reviewed by the Claims Administrator, you will receive a notice of decision on appeal within the timeframes specified in the applicable Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B for details on filing claims. For decision on eligibility to participate, the appeal must be filed within 60 days after you receive the notice of adverse decision.

The timeframes for providing a notice of decision on appeal generally start when a written appeal is received by the Claims Administrator. Notice of decision on appeal will be given within the time frame specified in the applicable Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B for details on filing claims. Notice of decision on appeal may be provided in writing through mail, or electronic delivery. Urgent Care Claims decisions may be delivered by telephone, facsimile, or other expeditious methods. “Days” means calendar (not business) days.

Your Right to Information

Upon request to the applicable Claims Administrator listed in Appendix C, and free of charge, you have a right to reasonable access to and copies of all documentation, records, and other information relevant to the Claims Administrator’s denial of a claim or appeal. Information is “relevant” if it:

- was relied upon in making the decision on your claim or appeal;
- was submitted to, considered, or generated by the Claims Administrator in considering your claim or appeal; or
- demonstrates compliance with the Claims Administrator’s administrative processes for making claim decisions

You are also entitled to access and copy any internal rule, guideline, protocol, or other similar criteria used as a basis for a decision on your denied claim or appeal upon request, free of charge. Similarly, if your claim or appeal is denied based on a determination involving a medical judgment, you are entitled to an explanation of the scientific or clinical reasons for that determination free of charge upon request. (A medical judgment includes whether a treatment, drug, or other item is experimental, investigational, or not medically necessary or appropriate.) In addition, if voluntary appeals or alternative dispute resolution options are available under the Benefit Program, you are entitled to receive information about the procedures for using these alternatives.

Non-Health Benefit Claims and Appeals Procedures

Filing an Initial Claim

You (or your beneficiaries) must follow the claims rules established by the various non-health Benefit Programs. If you are required to file an initial claim for benefits, you must do so within the time specified by the Benefit Program and in accordance with the program’s established claim procedures. See the applicable Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B for details on filing claims. See Appendix C for a list of claim administrators and their contact information.

Appeals Procedures

Definitions

- Claim. A request for program benefits made to the proper person in accordance with the Claims Administrator’s claims filing procedures. Claims must be submitted in writing to the appropriate Claims Administrator listed in Appendix C.
- Adverse Decision or Adverse Decision on Appeal. A denial, reduction, termination of, or a failure to provide or make payment (in whole or in part) for a benefit including a determination that a person is ineligible to participate in the Plan or Benefit Program.
• Authorized Representative. An individual authorized to act on your behalf in pursuing a claim or appeal, in accordance with procedures established by the Claims Administrator. For information about appointing an authorized representative, contact the Claims Administrator listed in Appendix C.

Notice of Adverse Decision

If your claim is denied or reduced, you will be provided with a notice of adverse decision within the timeframes specified in the applicable Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B for details on filing claims.

Appeal of Adverse Decision

If you disagree with the decision on your claim including for a request of an application for participation, you (or your authorized representative) may file a written appeal, with the applicable Claims Administrator. For a list of Claims Administrators, see Appendix C.

• For the Disability programs, the appeal must be filed within 180 days after you receive the notice of adverse decision.

• For the Life, AD&D, Legal, Severance, and Survivor Income Benefits programs, the appeal must be filed within 60 days after you receive the notice of adverse decision.

• For Decision on eligibility, the appeal must be filed within 60 days after you receive the notice of Adverse Decision.

For all non-health program claims, the decision will consider all comments, documentation, and records and other information you submit, even if they were not submitted or considered during the initial claim decision.

Notice of Decision on Appeal will be given within the timeframes specified in the applicable Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B for details on filing claims.

If a voluntary appeals process or alternative dispute resolution is available under the Benefit Program, you will receive information about such procedures.

If your claim or appeal is denied based on a determination involving a medical judgment, you are entitled to an explanation of the scientific or clinical reasons for that determination free of charge upon request. (A medical judgment includes whether a treatment, drug, or other item is experimental, investigational, or not medically necessary or appropriate.)

See Section 12, “Your Rights and Privileges Under ERISA” for additional information on legal action you can take if you feel your right to a benefit has been improperly denied.

9. Continuation of Health Care Coverage

Federal COBRA Continuation Coverage

Under a federal law called the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA), you (a LANS employee) and/or your dependents may be eligible to continue health program coverage (called “COBRA coverage”) at group rates. Health Benefit Program coverage includes medical, dental, vision, and Health Care Reimbursement Account (HCRA) benefits.

COBRA coverage is available in certain instances, called “qualifying events,” where health Benefit Program coverage would otherwise end. You may elect to continue coverage at your own expense on an after-tax basis when the coverage that you have through the Plan ends. The coverage described below may change as permitted or required by changes in any applicable law.
The following information is intended to inform you of your rights and obligations under the continuation coverage provisions of COBRA. In some states, state law provisions may also apply to the insurers offering benefits under the Plan.

You don’t have to show that you’re insurable to choose COBRA coverage. However, COBRA coverage is provided subject to your eligibility for coverage as described below. LANS reserves the right to terminate your coverage if it is determined that you are ineligible under the terms of the Plan in which case no COBRA rights are available.

Cost of COBRA Coverage

You will be required to pay up to 102% of the cost of COBRA coverage. If your coverage is extended from 18 months to 29 months for disability, you will be required to pay up to 150% of the cost of COBRA coverage beginning with the 19th month of coverage.

The cost of group health coverage periodically changes. If you elect COBRA coverage, the COBRA Administrator will notify you of any changes in the cost. Premiums are established in a 12-month determination period and will increase during that period if the Plan has been charging less than the maximum permissible amount, if the qualified beneficiary changes coverage level, or in the case of a disability extension.

The initial payment for COBRA coverage is due 45 days from the date of your election. Thereafter, you must pay for coverage on a monthly basis.

COBRA Administrator

The COBRA Administrator is Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Illinois. If you have any questions about COBRA coverage or the application of the law, contact BCBS at 1-877-878-5265.

You may also contact the nearest Regional or District Office of the U.S. Department of Labor’s Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA). Addresses and phone numbers of regional and district EBSA offices are available through EBSA’s website at www.dol.gov/ebsa.

You must notify the COBRA Administrator in writing immediately at the address listed below if:

- your marital or same sex domestic partner status has changed;
- you, your spouse, same-sex domestic partner or a dependent has changed address; or
- a dependent loses eligibility for dependent coverage under the terms of the Plan.

All written notices and other communications regarding COBRA coverage and your health Benefit Programs must be submitted on the appropriate forms within applicable deadlines as set forth in more detail throughout this section.

Continuation Coverage for Same-sex domestic partners

Continuation of coverage for same-sex domestic partners and their dependents is not required by federal COBRA, however, LANS currently provides continuation of coverage to same-sex domestic partners and their dependent children who were covered under the health programs when group coverage would otherwise have been lost. In the description of federal COBRA above, whenever the term:

- “Spouse” is used and wherever “qualified beneficiary” when referring to a spouse is used, the term “same-sex domestic partner” as defined by the Plan also generally applies.
- Wherever the terms “dependent child” or “dependent children” are used, or wherever “qualified beneficiary (ies)” when referring to a dependent child or dependent children is used, the dependent child/children of a same-sex domestic partner also generally applies.
• Wherever the term “divorce” is used, termination of same-sex domestic partnership also generally applies.
• Wherever the term “COBRA continuation coverage”, is used, continuation coverage for same sex domestic partner and their dependent children also generally applies.

Who is eligible for COBRA

If you are covered by a health Benefit Program on the day before a qualifying event, you have the right to choose COBRA coverage if you lose coverage under the terms of the health Benefit Program because of a reduction in your hours of employment or the termination of your employment (unless you’re terminated because of your gross misconduct).

If you are the spouse of an employee and you’re covered by a health Benefit Program on the day before the qualifying event, you’re considered a qualified beneficiary. That means you have the right to choose COBRA coverage for yourself if you lose coverage under the terms of the health Benefit Program for any of the following reasons:

- your spouse dies;
- your spouse’s employment is terminated (for reasons other than gross misconduct) or your spouse’s hours of employment are reduced;
- you divorce or legally separate from your spouse (this includes a divorce or legal separation that occurs after the employee drops you from coverage, if the employee acted in anticipation of the divorce or legal separation); or
- your spouse becomes entitled to Medicare (Part A, Part B, or both)

If you’re a dependent child of an employee and you’re covered under a health Benefit Program on the day before the qualifying event, you’re also considered a qualified beneficiary. This means you have the right to COBRA coverage if you lose coverage under the terms of the health Benefit Program for any of the following reasons:

- the employee dies;
- the employee’s employment is terminated (for reasons other than the employee’s gross misconduct) or the employee’s hours of employment are reduced;
- the employee becomes entitled to Medicare (Part A, Part B or both); or
- you cease to be a “dependent child” under the health Benefit Program

If the employee elects COBRA coverage and then has a child (either by birth, adoption or placement for adoption) during that period of COBRA coverage, the new child is a qualified beneficiary. In accordance with the terms of the health Benefit Program and the requirements of federal law, these qualified beneficiaries can be added to COBRA coverage by providing a written notice to the COBRA Administrator of the new child’s birth, adoption or placement for adoption at the address listed in Appendix C. This written notice should include information about the new child who will be receiving COBRA coverage. The COBRA Administrator may ask for documentation supporting the birth, adoption or placement for adoption of the new child.

If a qualified beneficiary fails to notify the COBRA Administrator about such new child within 31 days of the birth, adoption or placement for adoption, COBRA coverage cannot be elected for the new child. New family members who become dependents won’t be considered qualified beneficiaries, but may be added as dependents during the covered employees COBRA coverage period if eligible for coverage under the Benefit Program. Notify the COBRA Administrator within 31 days if you gain a new family member and want to enroll your new dependent in COBRA coverage.

Your duties

You must inform the COBRA Administrator in writing of a divorce, legal separation, termination of same sex domestic partnership, or child’s loss of dependent status under the health Benefit Program if you wish to preserve your right to elect COBRA coverage. You must provide notice within 60 days from the latest of (1) the date of the divorce, legal separation, termination of same sex domestic partnership, or loss of dependent status, or (2) the date coverage is lost because of the event.

Notice must be provided to the COBRA Administrator on a form which can be obtained from the COBRA Administrator. To request a form, call the COBRA Administrator. The notice should then be completed and provided to the COBRA Administrator at the address listed in Appendix C.

The notice must identify the employee or qualified beneficiary requesting COBRA coverage and the qualifying event that gave rise to the individual’s right to COBRA coverage. In addition, the employee or qualified beneficiary may be required to provide the COBRA Administrator with documentation supporting the occurrence of the qualifying event. If you fail to notify the COBRA Administrator within this 60-day period, the right to elect COBRA coverage will be lost.

When the COBRA Administrator is notified that one of these events has happened, the COBRA Administrator will in turn notify you about your right to elect COBRA coverage.

COBRA Administrator duties

Qualified beneficiaries will be notified of the right to elect COBRA coverage if they lose coverage under the terms of the health Benefit Program because of any of the following events:

- the employee dies;
- the employee’s employment is terminated (for reasons other than the employee’s gross misconduct) or the employee’s hours of employment are reduced;
- the employee becomes covered by Medicare (Part A, Part B, or both); or
- LANS experiences a bankruptcy

In addition, if you have provided timely written notice of divorce, legal separation, termination of domestic partnership, or child’s loss of dependent status as set forth in “Your duties” above, the COBRA Administrator will notify the qualified beneficiaries of the right to elect COBRA coverage as a result of:

- divorce;
- legal separation;
- termination of same sex domestic partnership; or
- child’s loss of dependent status

Electing COBRA

To elect or inquire about COBRA coverage, contact the COBRA Administrator listed in Appendix C.

Under the law, you have 60 days to elect COBRA coverage measured from the date you would lose your active coverage because of one of the events described earlier, or, if later, 60 days after you receive notice of your right to elect COBRA coverage. An employee or family member who doesn’t choose COBRA coverage within the time period described will jeopardize their eligibility for continued coverage under COBRA.

If you elect COBRA coverage, your coverage will be the same coverage you had immediately before the event and the same coverage that is being provided to similarly situated beneficiaries. “Similarly situated” generally refers to a current employee or dependent who hasn’t had a qualifying event.

You’ll have the same opportunity to change health Benefit Program coverage as similarly situated active employees have, e.g., at annual open enrollment or if you have a Life Event. This also means that if the coverage for similarly situated employees or family members is modified, your coverage will be modified.
Separate elections
Each qualified beneficiary has the right to elect COBRA coverage. This means that a spouse or dependent child who is a qualified beneficiary can elect COBRA coverage even if the covered employee does not elect COBRA coverage. A covered employee or spouse may elect COBRA coverage on behalf of other qualified beneficiaries, and a parent or legal guardian may elect COBRA coverage on behalf of a minor child.

Length of COBRA coverage
If elected, COBRA coverage begins on the date your active employee coverage ends. For dependents who no longer satisfy the requirements for dependent coverage, COBRA coverage begins on the first day of the month following the date the dependent no longer satisfies the requirements. However, COBRA coverage won’t take effect unless COBRA coverage is elected as described above and the required premium is received.

The maximum duration of COBRA coverage depends on the reason you or your covered dependents are eligible for COBRA coverage. If group health coverage ends because of your termination of employment or reduction in hours, COBRA coverage may continue for you and your covered spouse and dependents for up to 18 months.

However, if termination of employment or reduction of hours follows the employee’s Medicare enrollment, the COBRA coverage period for your spouse and dependent children is 36 months from the Medicare enrollment date or 18 months from your subsequent termination or reduction of hours, whichever is longer.

COBRA coverage for your covered spouse and dependents may continue for up to 36 months if coverage would otherwise end because:

- you die;
- you divorce or legally separate; or
- your dependent child loses eligibility for coverage

Note: COBRA coverage for the Health Care FSA ends at the end of the Plan year in which the qualifying event occurs.

Disability extension
The 18 months of COBRA coverage may be extended to 29 months if an employee or covered family member is disabled (as determined by the Social Security Administration) at any time during the first 60 days of an 18-month COBRA coverage period. This 11-month extension is available to all family members who have elected COBRA coverage due to the termination of employment or reduction in hours. It also applies to family members who aren’t disabled.

To benefit from the extension, the qualified beneficiary must provide the COBRA Administrator with the disability determination within 60 days after the later of (1) the Social Security Administration’s determination of disability, (2) the date on which a qualifying event occurs, or (3) the date coverage is lost because of the qualifying event. The notice of Social Security disability must also be furnished to the COBRA Administrator before the end of the original 18-month COBRA coverage period.

During COBRA coverage, if the Social Security Administration determines that the qualified beneficiary is no longer disabled, the COBRA Administrator must be informed within 30 days. The notice can be made by providing to the COBRA Administrator a copy of the notice from the Social Security Administration, or by other written means. The notice must properly identify the qualified beneficiary who is no longer disabled and the date the notice of redetermination was received. The 11-month COBRA extension will end at the end of the month in which the redetermination notice from the Social Security Administration is received by the qualified beneficiary. Coverage will be terminated retroactively to the end of the month in which the redetermination notice from the Social Security Administration is received, if the COBRA Administrator receives late notice of the determination.

Second qualifying event extensions
Your spouse and dependents may have additional qualifying events while they are covered by COBRA. These events can extend their 18-months (or 29 months) continuation period to 36 months, but in no event will they have more than 36 months of COBRA measured from the first day of the month following the first qualifying event that originally allowed them to elect coverage. This extension may be available to the spouse and any dependent children who are qualified beneficiaries and are receiving COBRA coverage if the employee or former employee dies, or gets divorced or legally separated, or if the dependent child stops being eligible under the Plan as a dependent child, but only if the additional event would have caused the spouse or dependent child to lose coverage under the Plan had the first qualifying event not occurred.

If the qualified beneficiary would like to have the opportunity to extend COBRA coverage, the law requires the qualified beneficiary to notify the COBRA Administrator if any of these additional qualifying events occur. This notice must be provided within 60 days from the latest of (1) the date of the second qualifying event, or (2) the date coverage would have been lost because of the event.

Notice of the additional qualifying event must be provided to the COBRA Administrator on the appropriate form, which may be obtained from the COBRA Administrator. The form should be returned to the COBRA Administrator at the address shown in Appendix C.

The notice must include information about the qualified beneficiary requesting additional COBRA coverage and the qualifying event that gave rise to the individual’s right to additional COBRA coverage. In addition, the qualified beneficiary may be required to provide the COBRA Administrator with documentation supporting the occurrence of the qualifying event.

If a qualified beneficiary (or his or her representative) fails to provide the appropriate notice and supporting documentation, if required, to the COBRA Administrator during the 60-day notice period, the qualified beneficiary won’t be entitled to extended COBRA coverage.

Early termination of COBRA coverage
COBRA coverage will terminate before the expiration of the 18-, 29- or 36-month period for any of the following reasons:

- LANS no longer provides group health coverage to any of its employees;
- the premium for COBRA coverage isn’t paid on time (within the applicable grace period);
- the qualified beneficiary becomes covered – after the date COBRA coverage is elected – under another group health plan that doesn’t contain any applicable exclusion or limitation for any pre-existing condition of the individual;
- the qualified beneficiary first becomes entitled to Medicare after the date COBRA coverage is elected; or
- coverage has been extended for up to 29 months due to disability, and the Social Security Administration has made a final determination that the individual is no longer disabled

COBRA and FMLA Leave
Taking an approved leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, as amended (an “FMLA leave”) isn’t considered a qualifying event that would make you eligible for COBRA coverage. However, a COBRA qualifying event occurs if:
• you, your spouse, or your dependent is covered by the program on the day before the leave begins (or you or your dependent becomes covered during the FMLA leave); and
• you don’t return to employment at the end of the FMLA leave or you terminate employment during your leave

COBRA coverage begins on the earlier of the following:
• when you inform the COBRA Administrator that you are definitely not returning to work; or
• the end of the leave, if you don’t return to work

COBRA and Military Leaves of Absence (USERRA)
If you take a military leave of absence that qualifies as a leave under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (“USERRA”), you may continue health coverage for up to 24 months.

If the entire length of the leave is 30 days or less, you will not be required to pay any more than the portion you paid before the leave. If the entire length of the leave is 31 days or longer, you may be required to pay up to 102% of the entire cost of the coverage. You can continue health coverage for the lesser of 24 months, beginning on the date the absence begins, or the length of the leave.

If you take a military leave, but your medical coverage is terminated, for instance, because you do not elect the extended coverage, upon reinstatement you will be treated as if you had not taken a military leave when determining whether an exclusion or waiting period applies upon your reinstatement into the applicable program.

Generally, no exclusions or waiting periods may be imposed upon reinstatement, except exclusions or waiting periods that would normally apply if you had not lost coverage due to your military leave. In addition, certain exceptions are made for an illness or injury that was incurred in or aggravated during the period of military leave.

Under circumstances in which COBRA coverage rights also apply (see “Federal COBRA Continuation Coverage” above for information on COBRA), an election for continuation coverage will be an election to take concurrent COBRA/USERRA medical coverage.

For additional information on military leaves, such as how to request a leave and other rights and obligations, as well as their impact on Plan benefits, please contact LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806.

COBRA and Other Leaves of Absence
For questions regarding COBRA and disability, workers’ compensation, and other leaves, contact LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806.

Benefit Program Changes during COBRA
While you or your dependents have COBRA coverage, there may be changes to medical, vision, dental, or HCRA benefits, such as new deductibles, covered expenses, or changes to your premiums. All changes will also apply to your COBRA coverage.

HIPAA Certificate of Creditable Coverage
When your COBRA coverage ends, you will automatically receive a certificate of creditable coverage that:
• confirms that you had whatever medical coverage you continued through COBRA; and
- states how long you were covered

If you become eligible for other medical coverage that excludes or delays coverage for certain pre-existing conditions, you can use this certificate to receive credit – against the new program’s pre-existing condition limit – for the time you were covered by the Plan.

In addition to the certificate you receive automatically, you also may request an additional certificate from Benefits by calling (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806 within 24 months after coverage ends.

Conversion Privileges

Some health Benefit Programs offer conversion from group coverage to individual coverage when coverage ends.

Medical Benefits

When medical coverage ends for you or any eligible dependent covered by a LANS-sponsored insured medical program you may be able to apply for an individual medical policy from that program.

The coverage and benefits may not be the same as those provided by LANS-sponsored medical programs and the rates will vary depending on your age, where you live and other factors. For additional information on your conversion rights, you should check with your medical benefit provider, or refer to the appropriate Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B.

Note: You also may be able to purchase an individual policy from an insurance carrier other than the provider for the LANS-sponsored Benefit Program that provides the coverage that you are losing.

You should examine your conversion coverage and all other options carefully before declining conversion coverage. You should be aware that companies selling individual health insurance typically require a review of your medical history that could result in a higher premium - or you could be denied coverage entirely.

Behavioral Health Benefits

There is no stand-alone conversion coverage available for behavioral health benefits. However, if you convert the medical benefits to which the behavioral health is attached, behavioral health may be converted as well.

Dental and Vision Benefits

There is no conversion coverage available for dental and vision benefits.

Right to Individual Health Coverage

Under HIPAA, if you are an “eligible individual,” you have a right to buy certain individual health policies (or in some states, to buy coverage through a high risk pool) without a preexisting condition exclusion. To be an eligible individual, you must meet the following requirements:

- you have had coverage for at least 18 months without a break in coverage of 63 days or more;
- your most recent coverage was under a group health plan;
- your most recent coverage was not terminated because of fraud or nonpayment of premiums;
- you are not eligible for COBRA continuation coverage or you have exhausted your COBRA benefits (or continuation coverage under a similar state provision); and
• you are not eligible for another group health plan, Medicare, or Medicaid, and do not have any other health insurance coverage.

10. Coordination of Health Care Benefits

When You Have Other Coverage

The procedures and timeframes described in this section are the general coordination of benefit rules applicable to LANS health benefits. The coordination of benefits rules applicable to you will be those of the Benefit Program in which you are enrolled and will be furnished automatically to you without charge as a part of the applicable Benefit Program material. See Appendix B.

If you do not receive the coordination of benefits procedures as a part of the Benefit Program material for health benefits, please contact the LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806.

If you and your dependents are enrolled in a LANS health Benefit Program as well as another health program, such as your spouse’s health program at work, the LANS-sponsored program coordinates its coverage with the other program. The LANS-sponsored program also coordinates its coverage with Medicare.

Here’s how it works in general:

• When the LANS-sponsored program pays first, in other words, if the LANS-sponsored program is the “primary” program, it pays benefits as though no other program exists. The other program may or may not pay benefits.

• When the LANS-sponsored program pays second, in other words, if the LANS-sponsored program is the “secondary” program, it may or may not pay a benefit, depending on what the other program (the “primary” program) has paid. The most an enrolled person can receive is a combined total of 100% of eligible expenses from all programs.

Which Plan Pays First?

If you or your covered dependents are also covered under another health program, the first of the following rules which applies determines which program is primary:

• A program without a coordination of benefits provision is considered primary.

• A program in which you are covered as other than a dependent (for example, as an active employee) rather than as a dependent is primary. If you also are a Medicare beneficiary, and as a result of federal law, a plan covering you as an active employee is primary, Medicare is secondary, and a plan covering you as a retiree determines benefits and pays last. If you are covered as a dependent of an active employee and you are a Medicare beneficiary, the plan covering you as a dependent is primary. Medicare is secondary and the plan covering you as a retiree (or as other than a dependent) determines benefits and pays last.

• For a dependent child whose parents are married or are living together, whether or not they have ever been married, or if a court decree establishes joint custody of your child without specifying which parent is responsible to provide health coverage, LANS uses the “birthday rule” to determine which program pays benefits first when the child is covered under both parents’ programs. Under the birthday rule, the program covering the parent whose birthday falls first in the calendar year is primary. The program of the parent whose birthday falls later in the year is the secondary program. If both parents share the same birthday, the primary program will be the program that has covered one parent the longest. The secondary program will be the program that has covered the other parent for a shorter period of time.
For a dependent child whose parents are divorced or separated or are not living together, whether or not they were ever married, and the child is covered under both parents' programs, the birthday rule does not apply. Instead, LANS uses the following rules to determine which program pays benefits first:

- first, the program of the parent to whom the court specifically assigned financial responsibility for health care expenses (for instance, through a Qualified Medical Child Support Order),
- then, the program of the parent who has custody,
- then, the program of the spouse married to the parent who has custody,
- then, the program of the parent who does not have custody, and
- finally, the program of the spouse married to the parent who does not have custody.

- A program in which you are enrolled as an active employee (or as that employee’s dependent) rather than as a laid-off or retired employee is primary.
- In most cases, a program in which you are enrolled as an active employee or subscriber rather than as a COBRA participant is primary.
- The program covering you or your dependent for the longest period of time is considered primary.
- If none of the above rules determines which program is primary, the allowable expenses shall be shared equally between the programs.

Coordination of Benefits with Medicare

If you continue to work for LANS after age 65 and are eligible for Medicare, you may continue your medical coverage under a LANS program and coordinate the program with Medicare. In general, the LANS program would be primary and pay benefits first for:

- eligible employees age 65 and over with current employment status and spouses age 65 and over who participate in the LANS program on the basis of the employee’s current employment status
- social Security disabled individuals who are covered by the LANS program on the basis of current employment status (their own or a family member’s current employment status) and who are entitled to Medicare benefits (e.g., disabled spouses or dependents of an active employee, or Social Security disabled participants who have returned to work)
- for certain individuals who become eligible for Medicare on the basis of having end-stage renal disease (ESRD), regardless of the reason for the employer coverage, or whether they are eligible for Medicare on the basis of age or disability, for the first 30 months of Medicare entitlement due to ESRD

When, under the Medicare Secondary Payor rules Medicare is the primary payer, benefits payable under the LANS medical Benefit Programs will be reduced by any amounts that would be paid by Medicare Part A, Part B, or the Part D prescription drug benefit (except as otherwise provided in the last paragraph of this section). This reduction applies for any participant or beneficiary who is eligible for Medicare and for any item or service that is or would be covered by Medicare, whether or not:

- the person is enrolled in Parts A and B and D of Medicare; or
- a claim for the service is filed with Medicare; or
- the service is provided under a private contract with a physician who has elected to opt out of the Medicare system; or
- the person is enrolled in a Medicare Advantage plan to receive Medicare benefits, and receives unauthorized services (out-of-network services not covered by the plan); or
- the person is enrolled in any other Medicare related demonstration or other pilot program

For any period the employer receives payments with respect to a Part D-eligible individual in LANS's capacity as a sponsor of a qualified retiree prescription drug plan under 42 C.F.R.
423.880-894, payments won't be reduced by amounts that would be payable under Medicare Part D with respect to expenses incurred for such period by such individuals.

Administration of Plan
The Plan Administrator has absolute discretionary authority to control and manage the operation and administration of the Plan, to correct errors, and to construe and interpret the provisions under the Plan, including but not limited to determinations regarding eligibility and benefits. The Plan Administrator may delegate duties and responsibilities as it deems appropriate to facilitate the day-to-day administration of the Plan and, unless the Plan Administrator expressly provides to the contrary, any such delegation will carry with it the Plan Administrator's full discretionary authority to accomplish the delegation.

In the event of a mistake as to the eligibility of the participation of an employee, the allocation made to your account, or the amount of benefits paid or to be paid to you or another person, the Plan Administrator shall, to the extent that it deems administratively possible and otherwise permissible under the applicable law, cause to be allocated or withheld or accelerated, or otherwise make an adjustment of, such amounts as it will in its judgment accord to you or other person the benefits to which you or such other person is properly entitled under the Plan. Such action by the Plan administrator may include withholding of any amounts due to the Plan or LANS from compensation paid by LANS.

Plan Amendment and Termination
LANS or its authorized delegate reserves the right in its sole discretion to amend in writing the Plan, or any Benefit Program, in whole or in part, and/or to completely discontinue in writing the Plan or any Benefit Program at any time. LANS' decision to amend or terminate is not a fiduciary decision. It is a business decision that can be made solely in LANS' interest.

LANS or its authorized delegate may in writing terminate or partially terminate the Plan, or discontinue contributions at any time. In addition, LANS reserves the right to amend or terminate in writing covered expenses, benefit co-payments, lifetime maximums, and reserves the right to amend in writing the programs to require or increase participant contributions. LANS also reserves the right to amend in writing the programs to implement any cost control measures that it may deem advisable.

Insured Benefits
Certain benefits under this Plan are fully insured. See Appendix D for information on which health and welfare Benefit Programs are insured.

With respect to insured benefits, claims for benefits are sent to the insurance company. In this case, the insurance company is responsible for paying claims, not LANS. The insurance company is responsible for and has full discretionary authority for:

- determining eligibility for and the amount of any benefits payable under the applicable Benefit Program.
- prescribing claims and appeal procedures to be followed and the claims and appeal forms to be used by plan participants pursuant to the applicable program

The insurance company also has the authority to require plan participants to furnish it with such information as it determines necessary for the proper administration of the applicable program.
With respect to insured benefits, you (or, in the case of your death, your beneficiary as that term is defined in the applicable insurance policy or contract) will be entitled to receive only the insured benefit for which provision is actually made under the insurance policy or contract.

LANS does not assume liability or responsibility for any insured benefit and you will be able to look only to the insurance contracts for payment or any benefits. You will not have any claim for insured benefits against LANS, the Plan Administrator or any employee, officer or director of LANS.

Contributions and Premiums

LANS’ Contributions

LANS may fund benefits provided under the Plan in whole or in part. Contributions made by LANS will be made at the times and in the manner determined by LANS. No assets will be set aside for the purpose of providing benefits under the Plan. LANS will pay benefits (including any insurance premiums necessary for the purchase of benefits) required under the Plan out of the general assets of LANS. In no event shall LANS have any obligation to fund self-funded benefits provided under the Plan in advance of the date that such benefits are payable or pre-pay the premiums or other fees required in order to provide insured benefits under the Plan. LANS’ contribution, if any, may be paid directly to the insurance company or other provider under the Plan. Such payment shall constitute a complete discharge of the liability of the Benefit Program, LANS and the Plan.

Self Funded Benefits

LANS’ general assets are the sole source of self-funded benefits under the Plan. LANS assumes no liability or responsibility for payment of such benefits beyond that which is provided in the self-funded Benefit Programs.

No Right to Assets

No participant, dependent, or beneficiary shall have any right to, interests in or claim for any particular assets of LANS, the Plan, any Benefit Program or any underlying contract, trust or other funding vehicle.

Acts of Third Parties

When you or your covered dependent ("you") are injured or become ill because of the actions or inactions of a third party, the Plan may cover your eligible health care (medical, prescription drug, dental and vision) expenses. However, to receive coverage, you must notify the Plan that your illness or injury was caused by a third party, and you must follow special Plan rules. This section describes the Plan’s procedures with respect to subrogation and right of recovery.

Subrogation means that if an injury or illness is someone else’s fault, the Plan has the right to seek expenses it pays for that illness or injury directly from the at-fault party or any of the sources of payment listed later in this section. A right of recovery means the Plan has the right to recover such expenses indirectly out of any payment made to you by the at-fault party or any other party related to the illness or injury.

By accepting Plan benefits to pay for treatments, devices, or other products or services related to such illness or injury, you agree that the Plan:

- has an equitable lien on any and all monies paid (or payable to) you or for your benefit by any responsible party or other recovery to the extent the Plan paid benefits for such sickness or injury;
• may appoint you as constructive trustee for any and all monies paid (or payable to) you or for your benefit by any responsible party or other recovery to the extent the Plan paid benefits for such sickness or injury; and

• may bring an action on its own behalf or on the covered person’s behalf against any responsible party or third party involved in the sickness or injury

If you (or your attorney or other representative) receive any payment from the sources listed later in this section – through a judgment, settlement or otherwise – when an illness or injury is a result of a third party, you agree to place the funds in a separate, identifiable account and that the plan has an equitable lien on the funds, and/or you agree to serve as a constructive trustee over the funds to the extent that the Plan has paid expenses related to that illness or injury. This means that you will be deemed to be in control of the funds.

You must pay the Plan back first, in full, out of such funds for any health care expenses the Plan has paid related to such illness or injury. You must pay the Plan back up to the full amount of the compensation you receive from the responsible party, regardless of whether your settlement or judgment says that the money you receive (all or part of it) is for health care expenses.

The "make whole" doctrine does not apply and does not limit the Plan's right to recover amounts it has paid on your behalf. Furthermore, you must pay the Plan back regardless of whether the third party admits liability and regardless of whether you have been made whole or fully compensated for your injury. If any money is left over, you may keep it.

Additionally, the Plan is not required to participate in or contribute to any expenses or fees (including attorney’s fees and costs) you incur in obtaining the funds. The Plan’s sources of payment through subrogation or recovery include (but are not limited to) the following:

• money from a third party that you, your guardian or other representatives receive or are entitled to receive;

• any constructive or other trust that is imposed on the proceeds of any settlement, verdict or other amount that you, your guardian or other representatives receive;

• any equitable lien on the portion of the total recovery which is due the Plan for benefits it paid; and

• any liability or other insurance (for example, uninsured motorist, underinsured motorist, medical payments, workers' compensation, no-fault, school, homeowners, or excess or umbrella coverage) that is paid or payable to you, your guardian or other representatives

As a Plan participant, you are required to:

• cooperate with the Plan’s efforts to ensure a successful subrogation or recovery claim, including setting funds aside in a particular account. This also includes doing nothing to prejudice the Plan’s subrogation or recovery rights outlined in this Summary;

• notify the Plan within 30 days of the date any notice is given by any party, including an attorney, of your intent to pursue or investigate a claim to recover damages or obtain compensation due to sustained injuries or illness;

• provide all information requested by the Plan, the Claims Administrator or their representatives, or the Plan Administrator or its representatives;

• execute and deliver such documents as may be required and do whatever else is needed to secure the Plan rights.

The Plan may terminate your Plan participation and/or offset your future benefits for the value of benefits advanced in the event that that the Plan does not recover, if you do not provide the information, authorizations, or otherwise cooperate in a manner that the Plan considers necessary to exercise its rights or privileges under the Plan.

If the subrogation provisions in these "Acts of Third Party" provisions conflict with subrogation provisions in an insurance contract governing benefits at issue, the subrogation provisions in the insurance contract will govern. If the right of recovery provisions in these “Acts of Third Party” provisions conflict with right of recovery provisions in an insurance contract governing benefits at issue, the right of recovery provisions in the insurance contract will govern. All Plan rights under this section remain enforceable against the heirs and estate of any covered person.

No Estoppel of Plan

No person is entitled to any benefit under the Plan or any Benefit Program except and to the extent expressly provided under the Plan or the Benefit Program. The fact that payments have been made from the Plan or Benefit Program in connection with any claim for benefits under the Plan or Benefit Program does not (a) establish the validity of the claim, (b) provide any right to have such benefits continue for any period of time, or (c) prevent the Plan or Benefit Program from recovering the benefits paid to the extent that the Plan Administrator ultimately determines that there in fact was no right to payment of the benefits under the Plan or Benefit Program.

Thus, if a benefit is paid to a person under the Plan or Benefit Program and it is thereafter determined by the Plan Administrator that such benefit should not have been paid (whether or not attributable to an error by such person, the Plan Administrator or any other person), then the Plan Administrator may take such action as it deems necessary or appropriate to remedy such situation, including without limitation, by deducting the amount of any such overpayment from any succeeding payments to or on behalf of such person under the Plan or Benefit Program or from any amounts due or owing to such person by LANS or under any other plan, program or arrangement benefiting the employees or former employees of LANS, or otherwise recovering such overpayment from whoever has benefited from it.

Misuse of Plan

LANS reserves the right to de-enroll individuals and their family members who misuse the Plan. Misuse of the Plan includes, but is not limited to, actions such as falsifying enrollment or claims information, allowing others to use Plan identification cards, and threats or abusive behavior towards Plan providers or representatives.

Insurance carriers may have their own rules that apply to misuse of the insured Benefit Program in which you are enrolled. See the applicable Benefit Program material listed in Appendix B for details regarding the insurers’ rules, which will govern if they conflict with the Plan rules.

Responsibility for Benefit Programs

- All service providers are independent contractors of the applicable program; LANS is not responsible for their actions.
- Neither the Plan Administrator nor LANS is responsible for the fiscal viability of benefit providers or for the continuing participation of doctors, hospitals, and others in their networks.
- Neither the Plan Administrator nor LANS can warrant or guarantee the quality or the length of service of providers.

No Guarantee of Employment

By adopting and maintaining the Plan and these Benefit Programs, LANS has not entered into an employment contract with any person. Nothing in the Plan documents gives any employee the right to be employed by LANS or to interfere with LANS’ right to discharge any Plan participant at any time. Similarly, these programs do not give LANS the right to require any Plan participant to remain employed by LANS, or to interfere with an employee’s right to terminate employment with LANS at any time.
Assignment of Benefits

Except as otherwise may be required under a qualified medical child support order (QMCSO) which assigns benefits to a child who has been designated as an alternate recipient in accordance with the Plan’s QMCSO procedures; by applicable law; or as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan or Benefit Program material; neither you nor your dependents nor your beneficiaries may assign, sell, transfer, pledge, charge, encumber or allow the attachment or alienation of any amount payable to you, your spouse, dependents, or any beneficiaries at any time under the Plan. Any attempt to so assign, sell, transfer, pledge, charge, encumber or allow the attachment or alienation of any such amount, whether presently or thereafter payable will be void. If you, your spouse, dependent, or beneficiary attempt to alienate, sell, transfer, assign, pledge, attach, charge or otherwise encumber any amount payable under the Plan, or any part thereof, or if a person’s bankruptcy or other event would cause amounts payable under the Plan to be subject to the person’s debts or liabilities, then the Plan Administrator may direct that such amount be withheld and that the same or any part thereof be paid or applied to or for the benefit of you, your spouse or your dependents, or any of them in such manner and proportion as the Plan Administrator may deem proper. Such payment shall constitute a complete discharge of the liability of the Benefit Program, LANS and the Plan.

However, you may request and authorize the Plan Administrator or the appropriate insurance company or service provider to pay benefits directly to the hospital, physician, dentist or other person furnishing services or supplies covered under the applicable Benefit Program and any such payment, if made, shall constitute a complete discharge of the liability of the Benefit Program, LANS and the Plan.

If the Plan Administrator determines that an underpayment of benefits has been made, the Plan Administrator shall take such action as it deems necessary or appropriate to remedy such situation. However, in no event shall interest be paid on the amount of any underpayment.

LANS Use of Funds

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, LANS shall be entitled to retain any policy dividend or refund, or portion thereof, it receives from any insurance company, administrative services organization, HMO, service plan or any other organizations or individuals, that exceeds the amount necessary to fund the benefits provided by any particular Benefit Program and Benefit Program expense.

Plan’s Use of Funds

All amounts paid to and held by the Plan (or any trust established in connection with the Plan), as well as any policy dividends and/or refunds not belonging to LANS, shall be available without limit to fund the benefits provided by any Benefit Program included in the Plan. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Plan Administrator, at its sole and unfettered discretion, may use funds accumulated under this Plan for any Benefit Program (whether funds accumulated from insurance contract reserves, insurance company refunds or dividends, participant or LANS contributions, or administrative fees) to reduce the level of contributions that LANS would otherwise make to the Plan for any Benefit Program. Such use of funds may occur without there being any effect on the participant contributions otherwise applicable.

Plan Expenses

Plan administrative costs are paid in part by the use of forfeitures, if any. The rest of the cost of administering the Plan is paid entirely by LANS.
Workers’ Compensation
The Plan is not in lieu of, and does not affect any requirement for coverage by, workers’ compensation insurance.

Withholding of Taxes
Withholding may be applied to amounts paid or payable pursuant to this Plan for all federal, state, local, or other taxes with respect to any amounts paid or payable under this Plan or any Benefit Program.

12. Your Rights and Privileges under ERISA
As a participant in the Plan, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). The Benefit Programs maintained by LANS that are governed by ERISA include those described in this SPD, except for the Dependent Care Reimbursement Account (a non-ERISA program).

ERISA provides that all Plan participants have the right to:

Receive Information About Your Plan and Benefits
- You can examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator’s office and at other specified locations (such as worksites) all documents governing the Plan. This includes insurance contracts and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed by the Plan with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA).
- By submitting a written request to the Plan Administrator, you can obtain copies of documents governing the operation of the Plan, including insurance contracts, copies of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series), and an updated summary plan description.
  (The administrator can charge you a reasonable fee for the copies.)
- You should receive a summary of the Plan’s annual financial report. The Plan
  Administrator is required by law to provide a copy of this summary annual report to each Plan participant.

Continue Group Health Plan Coverage
You can continue health care coverage (medical, vision, dental, and Health Care Reimbursement Account) for yourself, spouse, and/or your dependents if there is a loss of coverage under the Benefit Program as a result of a qualifying event. You and your dependents may have to pay for such coverage. For more details, review Section 9, “Continuation of Health Care Coverage,” in this SPD, the relevant Benefit Program materials, and the COBRA notice that was mailed to your home. If you need another copy of any of these documents, please contact LANL Benefits Office at (877) 667-1806 or (505) 667-1806.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries
In addition to creating rights for Plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the Plan. These people, called “fiduciaries” of the Plan, have a duty to operate your Plan prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including LANS, or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights
If your claim for a welfare benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right (within certain time schedules) to:
know why this was done,
• obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and
• appeal any denial.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request a copy of Plan documents or the latest annual report from the Plan and do not receive your copies within 30 days, you may file suit in a federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Plan Administrator.

After exhausting your appeal rights, you may file suit in a state or federal court if you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part. After exhausting your appeal rights, you may file suit in a federal court if you disagree with the Plan’s decision or lack thereof concerning the qualified status of a medical child support order.

You may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a federal court if:
• plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan’s money, or
• you are discriminated against for asserting your rights.

The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees (for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous).

Assistance with Your Questions
If you have any questions about your Plan, you should contact the Plan Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA or need assistance in obtaining documents from the Plan Administrator, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory, or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210 or www.askebsa.dol.gov. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration at 1-800-444-EBSA (3272) or on the internet at www.dol.gov/ebsa.
